II.—BIBLE CAUSE.

T. B. HOLT.

Your Committee on Bible Cause would submit the following report:

From the seventy-third annual report of the American Bible Society we gather the following facts—viz.: During the last fiscal year 1,440,435 copies of the Bible and portions of the Bible were issued, 434,681 copies of which were sent to foreign lands. The total receipts were $499,823.56, a falling off of $57,516.62. Consequently there was a falling off of 64,192 copies of the word of God, as compared to the previous year. This we regret. We are also pained to note that for the Conference year just closing only the small sum of $294.06 was collected by the Tennessee Conference for the Bible Cause. We realize the dependence of our Church upon the American Bible Society for the Scriptures, particularly for our Foreign Missions. This Society is doing a good work, and deserves at our hands a more liberal support. During the seventy-three years of its existence more than fifty million copies of the Word of God have been distributed in many languages and lands, and not a few of these volumes have brought the light of life to those who have received them.

Your committee offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That we urge our people to be more liberal in their contributions to the American Bible Society, that it may be able to more vigorously prosecute its grand work of sending the gospel to the world.

WALKER LEWIS, Chairman.

W. A. GILL, JR., Secretary.

III.—SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

Notwithstanding there has been a small apparent decrease in the number of Sunday-schools during the past year, we are pleased to state there has been an increase of nearly 1,400 scholars, and an increase of nearly $1,000 expended for literature. We are gratified by the reports from territory where this Board has assisted in supplying Sunday-school literature, resulting in establishing new schools and the conversion of children.

1. Resolved, That we commend the Sunday-school literature of our Church, and insist that it be used in all the schools.

2. That we urge upon pastors and Sunday-school superintendents to organize in all of our schools Auxiliary Missionary Societies as directed by the General Conference.

3. That the money collected on Children's Day continue to be drawn for the aid of Sunday-schools in destitute territories of this Conference, upon application of the preacher in charge, approved by the President of the Board, and that the Treasurer shall report to the Sunday-school Board at the ensuing Annual Conference the disposition of same.

4. That all the money collected on Children's Day be sent to Rev. J. T. Curry, Treasurer of the Board, and he turn over ten per cent. to Treasurer D. M. Smith, of the General Sunday-school Board.

- 5. That upon application of the preacher in charge, a Sunday-school library be placed in every mission of the Conference.
- 6. That we recommend and urge the use of the Bible as a book by all the children in our Sunday-schools.

 J. W. Irwin, Chairman.
 - R. J. CRAIG, Secretary.

IV.—CHURCH PROPERTY.

We find by comparing the figures of this year and last a decrease of fifteen in the number of churches. We suppose the reason for this, in part, is to be found in uniting two or more small churches and building a large one, which it is sometimes well to do. In the aggregate value of Church property there is reported an increase of $79,785. Ten new parsonages have been provided during the year, and the money expended on churches and parsonages this year exceeds that of last year by $49,217.10. The figures this year are as follows: Churches, 514, value $828,505; parsonages, 90, value, $98,528; other Church property, $22,842; money expended for churches and parsonages during the year, $116,682.28. The reports indicate a healthy activity along this line of Church enterprise; yet there are some localities within the bounds of our Conference where church and parsonage buildings are among their greatest needs. We therefore recommend to brethren laboring in these localities to stir and lead their people in building their own houses.

T. B. FISHER, Chairman.

O. G. HALLIBURTON, Secretary.

V.—DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

- 1. Murfreesboro District.—The journal of this district is neat, well arranged, and well kept. The page headings, however, do not name the seat of the Conference, the names of members present are not given in the body of the minutes, and the marginal index, though begun well, is not kept up throughout the proceedings. There is a failure also to note at one of the sessions of the Conference that the minutes of the preceding session were read.
- 2. Shelbyville District furnishes an excellent journal in every particular except that of a complete roll in the Appendix showing the official relation and pastoral charge of each member, as proposed by the last Annual Conference. The book itself is one prepared for the purpose by the Publishing House, but unsuited therefor.
 - 3. Nashville District has an unexceptionable journal in an excellent book.
- 4. East Nashville District has an excellent journal; we do not find, however, any roll in the Appendix, and the page headings do not give the name of the place of holding the Conference.
- 5. Savannah District has a well-kept journal. The Secretary is evidently very painstaking, and in 'the body of the journal has succeeded in every essential particular in making the records in an approved manner. At the head of each page the name of the place of holding the Conference should have been given, and 'in the Appendix there should have been a roll of all the members, giving their official relation and the charges which they represent. Unfortunately, the book, though a new one, is one of those prepared some years ago by the Publishing House, but unsuited to the purpose.
- 6. Centerville District.—The work of the Secretary shows up pretty well in many particulars, but there is no marginal space prepared, the page headings do not give the seat of the Conference, and there is no complete roll of members in the Appendix. The book is one of those unsuited for the purpose, prepared by the Publishing House, and is becoming dilapidated.
- 7. Columbia District has a large, strong book, and in a fine state of preservation, though having been in use since 1867. As to the work of the Secretary of the last District Conference it is simply perfect in all its parts; how it could be improved upon in any particular we cannot see.
 - 8. Franklin District.—The records of this district are contained in a superior book, the largest and best that we have. The work of the Secretary is strikingly beautiful and accurate, and would have been complete if he had only made the name of the seat of the Conference a part of his page headings.

9. Lebanon District has the small and indifferently bound book prepared under a former administration by the Publishing House. The record of the last District Conference is quite neat and accurate, but the Secretary has omitted to name the place of convening in the page headings, and the complete roll of the members is not in the Appendix, as our last Annual Conference requested.

10. Clarksville District has a book of good size, but indifferently bound. As to the work of the Secretary it is a model of accuracy, arrangement, and beauty.

The committee has taken occasion to mention incidentally the character of most of the books of record (those not named are only average books), because of the action of the Annual Conference on this subject last fall, and because we believe that all Church records should be contained in books of sufficient size and strength of binding for all necessary future purposes. The Franklin District has, in these respects, the model book.

We would be pleased to offer the same resolutions that you adopted last year, seeing that your expressed wishes have not been complied with altogether in every district. They are as follows:

"1. Resolved, That in order to reach the standard of uniformity in recording the roll, the presiding elders are requested to ask the Secretaries of the several District Conferences next following to record the names of the members present at roll-call in the body of the minutes, and also enter a full roll of all the members in the supplement, giving their official relation and the charges which they represent.

"2. That we regard the District Conference Record Book, prepared by the Publishing House of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, as unsuited in size and arrangement for the purpose for which it is designed; and that we recommend to those District Conferences having such books to provide themselves with others larger and better bound and arranged."

A. T. GOODLOE, Chairman.

VI.-EDUCATION.

The Board of Education would report as follows:

1. Vanderbilt University is assuming its proper position among the educational institutions of our Church, in that it is freeing itself of those features which brought it into rivalry with our colleges and preparatory schools, and is becoming in the truest sense, in all its departments, a great university.

1. Resolved, That we thank God for the preservation of the life of its venerable chancellor, Dr. L. C. Garland.

2. That we have heard with pleasure his statements concerning the condition of the institution, and especially concerning the elevation of the standard made in the Biblical Department.

3. That we recommend to the presiding elders and examining committees that they suggest to young preachers the importance of a thorough preparation for the ministry, and also urge them to attend Vanderbilt if possible.

2. Nashville College for Young Ladies, in respect of patronage, has continued steadily to increase, opening in 1880 with an enrollment of one hundred and forty students and closing the last term with three hundred and twenty-six. The college is now regarded as our leading school in this section.

The boarding-department contains representatives of a dozen States and Territories; besides, the college is gaining constantly a stronger hold upon the community in which it is located.

The department of elocution has been strengthened, and the work of physical culture has been undertaken upon a more liberal scale since the session of our last Annual Conference.

A Kindergarten Department has also been opened, which completes the entire circuit of female education from the mother's knee to the advanced post-graduate courses of instruction.

Access is had by the students to the chemical apparatus and lectures by professors of Vanderbilt University.

The libraries are steadily growing in the number of valuable books.

Assistance has been given the past year to several of our Conference brethren in the way of remitting tuition fees and cheapening for them the expense for board in the college. As there is no endowment fund, the Principal has drawn upon his own private means to the extent of $600 and $900 a year to afford them benefactions. The outlook of the college is encouraging.

The property of the college now includes three buildings in a most desirable condition and an investment of about $100,000 in land, houses, and outfit, all in first-class condition. Some additional buildings are contemplated.

We recommend most heartily this institution to the fostering care and patronage of the Conference, and recommend that a visiting committee be appointed.

3. The Webb School, at Bellbuckle, Tenn., continues in its unparalleled career of success. The Messrs. W. R. and J. M. Webb, together with three competent assistants, have under their instruction two hundred and twenty pupils, nearly all of whom are boarders.

The many successful men in the various walks of life who sat at the feet of these teachers are building for them an imperishable monument. We recommend the re-appointment of Rev. George L. Beale to this school. We also recommend a visiting committee.

4. The Culleoka Academy, one of our training-schools for boys, has entered upon its twenty-second session. There has been a change of principals in this school. Mr. Marvin West, A.M., is now principal of this school. Mr. West is a graduate of Vanderbilt University, and he is strongly indorsed by members of the Vanderbilt Faculty.

A communication from the Board of Trustees report the school in a prosperous condition. They desire a continuation of the fostering care of the Tennessee Conference, and they request this body to appoint a committee to visit them and to look into this school and see how they do. We therefore commend this excellent school to the patronage of our people, and we recommend that the Conference appoint a committee to visit Culleoka Academy.

- 5. Tennessee Female College, under the presidency of Professor M. Thomas Edgerton, a teacher of many years' experience, opened its thirty-fourth year September 4, 1889, with its patronage largely increased, the boarding-department being full. The thoroughness of the work done, the extra care given to the health of the girls, the superior accommodations given, the high order of moral and religious influence in the college, and the character of the teachers employed, together with the healthfulness of the location, are some of the causes which have drawn a large patronage from the South and South-west. The school is probably doing as much toward educating the daughters of our preachers as any school in the South, free tuition being given. The growth of the school requires an additional wing to the present building, which has been planned and is expected to be ready for occupancy at the opening of next year. This addition will be built of brick, three stories high, forty by eighty feet, and will increase the capacity to over one hundred boarders. When this is completed, steam heat, steam laundry, electric lights, chemical laboratory, good library, fine gymnasium, and a suit of rooms for each two girls, will be some of the modern equipments offered by this enterprising school. We recommend the appointment of a visiting committee.
- 6. Clarksville Female Academy.—We find that this is the only school reported to us in which the Conference owns a dollar. We gladly note the greatly improved condition of the building, being now entirely new, and are much gratified at the rapidly increasing attendance both in the boarding-department and daily attendance. We find that by the provisions of the charter of this school the action of the trustees in the election of a principal must be ratified by this Conference. They have elected Mrs. E. G. Buford, a Methodist woman, to the position of principal. Not only is this the only school in which the Conference is financially interested, but no school reported to us makes more liberal offers to the daughters of Methodist preachers. And because of these facts and the competency of the entire Faculty, we be peak for it not only the fostering care of the Conference, but the liberal patronage of the entire Church.

Resolved, That this Conference ratify the action of the trustees in the election of Mrs. E. G. Buford as principal, and that a visiting committee be appointed.

7. We are able to report that the cost of the Martin Female College suit has been paid.

8. We take pleasure in incorporating in this report the report of the Commissioner of Female Education, which is as follows:

"We have been able to keep at school for the scholastic year 1888-9, eight pupils at the following institutions: Nashville College for Young Ladies, 2; Culleoka Academy, 2; Soule Female College (Murfreesboro), 2; Tennessee Female College (Franklin), 1; Centenary College (Cleveland), 1. For the year 1889-90: Clarksville Female Academy, 1; Webb's School (Bellbuckle), 1; Mrs. Clark's (East Nashville), 1. All these schools have made a generous contribution for the education of our girls.

Received since last annual report:

Contributions by schools	265	00
Total receipts	,482	00
Balance due Commissioner$	305	20

"We have at school and pledges for scholarships nine students for the year to come. It is respectfully requested that the Conference consider the question of ordering a collection for female education in all our charges for the year to come.

"D. C. Kelley, Commissioner of Female Education."

Addendum to Commissioner's Report on Female Education.

We have heard with pleasure the generous proposition of Ward's Female Seminary (Nashville), through the principal, Professor J. B. Hancock. He proposes to educate free of tuition and board one daughter of a Methodist preacher. He is now educating one on the above terms. We therefore tender our thanks to this institution and also to those mentioned in the Commissioner's report, who have and are contributing so liberally to the education of our preachers' daughters.

Resolved, That, in connection with the sermon on Christian education which all our pastors are required to deliver, a collection in each charge be raised for the education of the daughters of our preachers.

9. The Board of Education adopts the opinion of the special committee appointed at our last session with regard to the education of colored people—viz.: That the matter should be under the supervision of the General Board of Missions, where we trust it will be placed by the approaching General Conference. In order, in the meanwhile, to help meet the current expenses of Paine and Lane Institutes, we request the presiding elders of the various districts of the Tennessee Conference to raise the following amounts apportioned to their several districts, leaving them to raise the money in the way they deem best:

Nashville District	$1	08
East Nashville District		63
Lebanon District		52
Murfreesboro District		63
Shelbyville District.		63
Columbia District:
Franklin District
Savannah District
Centerville District		25
Clarksville District		69
Total	$6	02

And that the amounts collected be sent to C. G. Gooch, Treasurer, Augusta, Ga.

J. E. HARRISON, Secretary.

J. B. ERWIN, Chairman.

VII.—BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

REPORT NO. I.

Carlyle once exclaimed: "May blessings be upon the head of Cadmus, the Phenicians, or whoever it was that invented books! In books lies the soul of the whole past time." So the present age is infusing its soul into its books. Milton said, "A good book is the precious life-blood of a master spirit embalmed," and Robert South said, "He who has published a bad book sins as it were in his very grave; corrupts others while he is rotting himself." The influence of our literature is very powerful on the present and the rising generation, both for good and for evil. Many men have been influenced through life by the first few books they read. Particularly are the young affected by reading, and in these days of activity, when pen and press are at work so vigorously, it behooves the Church to be alive to the interest of our youth. In many Christian families we find a literature charged with a subtle poison that is imperceptibly alienating the minds of the children. The families of the Church should be carefully guarded against these adverse influences. A healthy and pure literary taste should be conscientiously and diligently cultivated in every household. Good papers and good books should be put into the hands of all our members.

The great Methodist Church, with her large membership and her hundreds of thousands of adherents, has not been remiss in this vital matter. Her great Publishing House has taken its place among the leading business houses of the country. Its success speaks loudly for the skill and diligence of its Agent and Book Committee, and is a matter of sincere gratitude on the part of the Church, inasmuch as it supplies a powerful agency for good. This Publishing House now occupies a very commanding position and is doing its work well; its business is growing and its usefulness enlarging. We have lived to see the circular of a newborn Publishing House grow to a stout pamphlet, and we are glad to see the catalogue of our House contain so many valuable books, and we rejoice to know that its publications reach so many of the families of the South.

The exhibit presented to the Conference by the Book Agent shows the House to be in a healthy financial condition. Every department is paying a profit to the House but one. This exhibit calls special attention to the revised Hymnal, and says: "The Hymnal is probably as near the ideal as could be attained, and the book, in material, mechanical execution, and esthetic design, is up to the same standard." The sale of this book is very large. We would call attention to the annotated edition of the Hymnal by Rev. W. F. Tillett, D.D. We commend this book to our brethren in the ministry as very valuable, giving the history of many of our hymns and hymn-writers. Attention is also called to Summer's "Systematic Theology," because it is the "clearest succinct statement of Wesleyan Theology extant." We are glad to know that this work is having a good and steady sale.

1. Resolved, That we have just reason to be proud of the position attained by our Publishing House among the commercial establishments of the country, and that we have great cause for gratitude in the manifestation of skill and faithfulness on the part of its managers in securing this great ally in our Christian work.

2. That we pledge ourselves to continue our efforts to circulate its books, and thus increase its usefulness and forward our own work.

REPORT NO. 2.

The Nashville Christian Advocate is published by the Publishing House. It is edited by the Rev. O. P. Fitzgerald, D.D., and the Rev. John W. Boswell. It is devoted to the interests of Christ's kingdom, and long ago won a high position and has steadily maintained it. It is a pure, godly paper, carrying only benediction into Christian homes. It is filling admirably a sphere in the Church that must be filled to preserve its spiritual health. The senior editor has long been known as possessing a very remarkable genius for his position. He is doing the Master's work, and shows himself "a workman that needeth not to be ashamed." His assistant has proved his right to his post, and has amply justified the wisdom of those who laid the responsibility on him. The two are supplying the Church with a paper that knows in its sphere no superior, and it ought to supplant in every Christian household those papers that come charged with evil influences. We feel very grateful that we can always so freely and so cheerfully commend the Advocate. On the 1st of next January it is to come out in a new, clear-faced type, that will add much to its beauty and about five pages more to its reading-matter, and that without any additional charge. The Advocate deserves its high reputation and its large circulation.

The Missionary Reporter, edited by the Missionary Secretary, Rev. I. G. John, has lately been put into the form of a monthly magazine, and at the low price of fifty cents ought to reach many families. It is well edited, is full of intelligence on missionary matters, is turning on the light and stirring up the Church to more missionary zeal. What our people need is an intimate acquaintance with our missionary work, and if the magazine edited by Dr. John could be largely circulated, it would greatly forward our missionary enterprises. The low price and the excellence of this magazine should commend it to every Methodist family.

The Woman's Missionary Advocate is another excellent missionary publication, issuing from the Publishing House. It is ably edited by Mrs. Butler, and is doing a noble work for Missions in diffusing missionary intelligence, and we recognize in it a worthy ally in our work in the Master's kingdom.

The Quarterly Review, edited by the Rev. William P. Harrison, D.D., is a noble periodical containing contributions of the first order. The editor, by his learning and his excellence as a writer, has made the Review the peer of any in the country. It is a sumptuous quarterly, and its mechanical execution is worthy of all praise. It is a matter of profound regret that so magnificent a work, edited with so much learning and so unexceptionable in its material finish, should not meet with more encouragement from the Church. It deserves to succeed.

Inasmuch as all these periodicals are edited in the interest of Christ's Church, and for the advancement of his kingdom; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we esteem it a privilege to aid in their circulation, and hereby pledge ourselves to renewed efforts in this direction.

REPORT NO. 3.

The various Sunday-school periodicals, edited by the Rev. W. G. E. Cunnyngham, D.D., are admirably filling their mission. The large circulation, now about 1,000,000, shows their wonderful popularity and their admirable fitness to accomplish the purpose for which they are published. The Magazine is prepared with remarkable care, has very valuable contributions, and through its comments sheds abundant light on the lessons. It is a noble help to teachers, and should be in the hands of every one in the land. The Senior Quarterly, the Intermediate Quarterly, the Lesson Paper, Our Little People, and the Sunday School Visitor, are ably edited and are fully equal to similar publications in any Church. They are steadily increasing in popularity.

As to books, this department has adopted a plan that calls for special commendation. The Master left the general management of the Church to the good sense of its officers. Formerly it was not a difficult matter to select good books, or at least to shun the bad ones. Books were not so numerous, and the selection was easier. But in these days they are multiplying so rapidly (both good and bad) that it is exceedingly uncertain whether a young person without a guide will get a good or a bad book. So the Book Committee appointed the Rev. J. A. Lyons to read and select graded libraries for our Sunday-schools. By his consecrated scholarship and conscientious diligence he has discharged this important duty to the satisfaction of all concerned. Parents, Sunday-school superintendents and teachers may now purchase any one of these eleven libraries, feeling assured that they will put into the hands of their children a wholesome Christian literature. It is a wise measure, and furnishes a much-needed safeguard for our sons and daughters. Our Sunday-school literatures is of a very high order, and we have just cause to be more than gratified.

Resolved, That we tender Dr. Cunnyngham our warmest commendation for the eminent success he has achieved in his department, and pledge ourselves to continue our efforts to advance our Sunday-school interests.

REPORT NO. 4.

One book, "Can It Be False?" issued by the Publishing House, and bearing its imprint, deserves a special notice.

Inasmuch as this book, in its last chapter, entitled "Conclusion," contains language that has been construed as a censure of ministers for their course in the late prohibition campaign, in opposing the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks as a beverage; and inasmuch as the book bears the imprint of the Publishing House; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we enter our solemn protest against that part of the book containing this unauthorized censure going forth to the public with the imprint of the Publishing House and under its sanction, thus claiming the indorsement of the M. E. Church, South.

Besides the assets on hand, as mentioned in the foregoing report, there is the Nashville and Decatur Railroad stock, the bequest of Nathaniel Moore, deceased, which had become the subject of a suit in Chancery instituted by the heirs of said Moore for the recovery of the property. The Board of Trust deemed it in every respect proper that its rights in the premises should be defended in the courts, and H. P. Figuers, of Columbia, and A. S. Colyar, of Nashville, attorneys, were therefore employed to defend the suit, which, however, has since been compromised by an equal division of the railroad stock between the contestants. This compromise was only agreed to on our part after full consultation with our attorneys. The actual settlement of the case has not been completed, and hence the railroad stock does not appear in the statement of assets.

IX.—TEMPERANCE.

Resolutions adopted by the Tennessee Conference at Murfreesboro.

From a passive nuisance in its earlier history the whisky traffic has become an overmastering, ubiquitous, subtle, organized, desolating curse. The easy stages of its progress to its present destructive power, together with its very age and ubiquity, in some sense tend to obtund our appreciation of its terrors. It is difficult to state concisely the depth, the deviousness, and the diabolism of its reign of ruin to our children, our homes, our country, and our civilization. It is debauching a vast army of the young men of our country, dishonoring multitudes of mature ones, and consigning its thousands to drunkards' graves yearly. It creates very largely the pauperism, the lunacy, and the crimes of the country, whose care or cure, or conviction and punishment, impose enormous burdens of taxation on the State. It breaks more hearts, brings more tears, blights more hopes, bankrupts more homes of love and peace, and breeds more diversified and poignant wretchedness than any other one evil. It is now organized, aggressive, defiant, and dominant in regions where once it assayed not even to enter. Disdaining even legal restrictions by which its ravages are sought to be curtailed, it has boldly invaded the sacred precincts of our Temple of Liberty, and by debauchery of the ballot-box and the control of law-making bodies and law-executing functionaries, it dares by these anarchic means to perpetuate its life of ruin and death. Its place and power in the politics of the country is the peril of our Government to-day. The obsequious vassalage of parties to its mastery, its enormous wealth, its powerful organization, its utter disregard for all other interests save its one single purpose of self-perpetuation render it a monster iniquity unequaled by any other one evil in its dangers to society. is the great foe of the Church, an enemy to her aims, an obstruction to her endeavors—answering her glad song of "Peace on earth, good will to men" by its dirge of woful discord on earth and gloom and murder and despair among men. It is a sin to license such a traffic by law. The traffic is a sin. To license it is a sin. To encourage its continued license is a sin. Not to discourage its license is a sin against God and human society.

The time has fully come in the history of the prohibitory movement, when, to prevent the obstructive effects of certain loose and ill-conceived ideas which are being pressed upon the public mind, we need to define more accurately the doctrine of the separation of Church and State. To this doctrine, so representative of the spirit of our age—a spirit itself the offspring of Christianity—we hereby affirm our unfaltering adherence. Let it be understood that the fundamental principles of this doctrine are the denial to the State of any right to control the conscience of the individual, by the establishment of a State Church, including the enforcement of contributions for the support of religion on the one hand, and on the other hand the denial of any right upon the part of the Church to have her mere ecclesiastical censures enforced by the power of the State. This gives rightful place to both, and distinctive ground for each to occupy. While we affirm these lines of distinction we cannot for a moment forget that in the field of morals covered by the second great commandment there is a common ground which has ever been and must forever be occupied by both. That neither of them, in view of their responsibility to God and humanity, can withdraw their best efforts and wisest counsels from this battle with evil. While great wisdom and forbearance are often needed where differences of opinion are to be overcome, and while a judicious respect for expediency should at all times mark the methods of Church procedure where such differences are found to exist, yet we desire to declare firmly the duty of the Church to adopt the most efficient, practical, and powerful weapons known to her. armory to pursue moral evils to their hiding-places, and to eliminate them both from the hearts and organizations of humanity. To hesitate to prosecute with all her power a great moral evil like the whisky traffic, because it has contrived to protect itself under the forms of law, would be not only recreant to her commission, but a denial of the Master who gave up his life rather than compromise with sin. Our fathers walked in the light they had We propose no censure on them when we say that in dealing with the liquor traffic in the past many of its infamies have been winked at, but now God by the light of to-day commands in unmistakable terms all men everywhere to repent.

It is with profound pleasure that we recur to the uniform attitude of this Conference for years past, which has been that of the absolute prohibition of the liquor traffic by law. We offer the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we hereby re-affirm our deliverances on this subject as contained in the reports on temperance as accepted for the years 1881 to 1888.

- 2. That we believe the only effectual method of dealing with this evil is by national prohibition.
 - 3. That we are opposed to a compromise of any kind either by high license or restriction.
- 4. That we, as ministers and laymen, will use our best endeavors in every legitimate way to promote this great end.
- 5. That with deep humility we recognize our dependence upon Almighty God, and most devoutly implore his divine blessings upon our cause.
- 6. That we commend the fallen inebriate to the mercy of our blessed Redeemer, and urge him to seek his favor and aid in contending against this great evil and in struggling against his vicious and depraved appetite.
- 7. That we respectfully suggest to our pastors in charge the importance of enforcing the disciplinary regulations on drunkenness and dram-drinking. D. C. Kelley, Chairman.

B. F. HAYNES, Secretary.

X.—MEMORIALS TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE.

Your committee on General Conference Memorials beg leave to recommend to your favorable consideration the memorial from Lebanon District Conference, in regard to boundary between this and the Holston Conference; also the memorial asking attention to the ordination of all preachers placed in charge of work. We recommend non-concurrence in the memorial on Church Registers, changing the keeping of the Church Register from the Secretary of Church Conference to Recording Steward; also with the memorial referring to the honorary degree of D.D.

D. C. Kelley,

J. B. West, W. H. Wilkes.

As adopted by the Conference:

ORDINATION.

Whereas it is a common thing for unordained preachers to be made pastors of circuits and stations where there are no ordained preachers residing or near; and whereas the ordinance of baptism in such charges is therefore often withheld unduly from candidates for its reception, and the sacrament of the Lord's Supper is sometimes denied both living and dying believers, to the detriment of the Church and the discount of the unordained ministry; and whereas, moreover, the tying of a pastor's hands and feet by denying him the right to baptize and administer the Lord's Supper for years after he is counted worthy to preach the everlasting gospel of the Son of God is clearly contrary to reason and without warrant of Scripture; therefore,

Resolved, That the Tennessee Conference hereby memorialize the approaching General Conference of 1890 either to make the ordination of preachers a condition precedent to any appointment in the pastorate, or allow them when in charge of circuits or stations to do all the work of a pastor, even though unordained.

Respectfully submitted.

WALKER LEWIS and others.

CHANGE OF BOUNDARY LINE.

[Record of District Conference, April 19, 1889.]

The second session of the Lebanon District Conference, Tennessee Conference of the M. E. Church, South, convened at Liberty, De Kalb County, Friday, April 19, 1889. The Conference was called to order at 8:30 o'clock A.M. by Bishop R. K. Hargrove. After religious services by the bishop the following proceedings were had—to wit:

On the second day of the Conference the following memorial was presented and adopted: The second Quarterly Conference for the current year (1888–9) for Wolf River Mission, Lebanon District, Tennessee Annual Conference, M. E. Church, South, respectfully memorialize the District Conference to memorialize the Annual Conference to memorialize the General Conference to return as formerly to the Holston Conference the territory lying between the Cumberland Mountain and Obed River to Clay County eastern line, and with this eastern line of Clay County north to the Kentucky line, and thence east with the Kentucky line to Cumberland Mountain. The territory referred to embraces nearly all of Pickett County and that part of Fentress not now occupied by the Holston Conference. Reasons:

1. It is more convenient to serve this terrritory from the Holston side. There is no particular difficulty in getting to it from the present Holston border. High water can seldom keep the presiding elder or preacher in charge from a Quarterly Conference or appointments from that side. Obed and Wolf are nothing but little creeks that can be forded at any season, approaching from the Holston side.

2. Approached from the Tennessee Conference side, Obed and Wolf rivers must be crossed where they are rapid and dangerous streams from early autumn till late in the spring. There is no bridge to either of these streams, and only one ferry-boat to one and none on the other, and that boat cannot be managed with safety. It has been known to run away with the ferryman and go down the river in attempting to cross. From the Holston side none of this is encountered by preacher in charge or presiding elder in serving the work.

3. The people want to go that way. They petitioned once before.

Signed in behalf of the second Quarterly Conference for the current year 1888-9 for Wolf River Mission, Lebanon District, Tennessee Annual Conference, April 6, 1889.

XIII.—JOINT BOARD OF FINANCE.

REPORT NO 7.

The Board has had under consideration the matter of adding to the permanent fund for the use and benefit of superannuated preachers and their widows and orphans, and beg leave to call the attention of the Conference to the fact that but little attention was paid to the resolutions adopted at the last session of the Conference touching the 20 per cent. additional collections. We therefore offer the following suggestions—viz.: That each preacher in the Conference be requested to raise at least 20 per cent. more than his assessment for the incoming year, and to make a special report on this collection to the next Conference—the amount so raised to be turned over to the "Board of Trust for superannuated preachers."

Paid on this fund: East Nashville District, $33.20; Lebanon District, $3.80; Franklin District, $6.25; Savannah District, $8.05; Centerville District, $40. Total, $91.30.

Respectfully submitted.

W. H. Morrow, Chairman.

W. Weakley, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 8, SEAY DEVISE.

The report from the trustees of the "Seay devise," with an explanation by Rev. N. B. S. Owings, preacher in charge of Lebanon Circuit, is approved.

It is recommended that the following trustees be appointed for said property for the ensuing year—viz.: J. B. Tarver, J. M. Riggan, and Fillmore Winter. Said trustees are to manage and control the same, giving the benefit of the parsonage property to the preacher in charge of Lebanon Circuit, and the proceeds of the "Poor Widow's Place" to the widow who shall be named as beneficiary by the Conference.

Mrs. Sallie Pittman, widow of Rev. J. T. Pittman, is recommended as a suitable and proper person to enjoy the benefits of the "Poor Widow's Place," under the will of testator, the late Rev. John Seav.

Respectfully submitted.

W. H. Morrow, Chairman.

W. WEAKLEY, Secretary.

In accordance with your instructions to manage and control the Seay devise so that the beneficiaries under the will of the testator shall reap the greatest possible benefit, and at the same time the property shall be preserved and improved, the preacher in charge of the circuit made it his residence this year; made use of house, garden, orchard, front lot, and stables. The cultivated lands of both places were rented to tenant for $127; improvements, $27; cash received, $100. This amount, $100, has been turned over to the preacher in charge. The receipt is herewith attached.

B. J. Tarver,

Joseph Powell, C. W. Westbrook.

As an addendum and an explanation of the foregoing I state that both places rented the present year for $127, that the place for the "Poor Widow" was in debt to the other place for repairs, so that the rents from "Poor Widow's Place" for present year is turned over on its arrears for former years. Hereafter both places are ready for use as directed under the will.

N. B. S. Owings, P. C.

REPORT NO. 9.

In reference to the issue between the presiding elder of the Shelbyville District and the Board of Stewards of Shelbyville Station we beg leave to submit the following:

QUESTION 1. Has a Board of Stewards the right to refuse a contribution offered by a member of the M. E. Church for ministerial support?

Answer. When offered by a proper person and from a proper motive, no.

Ques. 2. Has the Board of Stewards in a pastoral charge the right to make nominal estimates for their preacher's salary in order to defeat the action of the District Stewards in estimating and assessing the salary of the presiding elder.

Ans. No. It is the sense of this Joint Board that the fixing of salaries of either preacher or presiding elder beyond a probable amount is all wrong.

Ques. 3. Has a Board of Stewards the right to fix the salary of the preacher in charge, and report to one Quarterly Conference, and at a subsequent Quarterly Conference, report a readjustment of said salary.

Ans. Yes, provided the re-adjustment does not affect the equitable adjustment of first assessment for the two salaries; but when done by one board to defeat the action of the other, no. In this case in hand, we think the prorating should be made upon the nominal salaries as now fixed by district and station stewards—namely, $1,440 to preacher in charge, and $160 to presiding elder.

Respectfully submitted.

W. H. Morrow, Chairman.

W. WEAKLEY, Secretary.

XIV.—MEMOIRS.

REV. JOHN F. HUGHES was born in Stokes County, North Carolina, in September, 1814; and died at Nashville, Tennessee, February 28, 1889. We are indebted to Rev. P. A. Sowell for the following outline of his long and useful career as a minister of the gospel, extending from 1833 to 1889. In 1833 he was admitted on trial, Bishop McKendree, President, and appointed junior preacher on Hatchee Circuit, Rev. F. P. Scruggs preacher in charge, Memphis District, Rev. J. M. Holland presiding elder. The year 1834–5 he traveled the Cumberland Circuit, two hundred and fifty miles from Hatchee; ordained deacon 1835 by Bishop Soule, at Florence, Alabama; 1835-6, he filled the Lebanon Station; 1836-7, Lebanon Circuit; ordained elder by Bishop Andrew, at Somerville, Tennessee, in 1837. In 1837-8, he had charge of Clarksville Station; 1838-9, Lebanon Station, second time; 1839-41, Montgomery Circuit, two years. The year 1841-2, supernumerary with Dr. A. R. Erwin; 1842–3, junior preacher on Madison Circuit, Alabama; 1843-4, Mill Creek Circuit; 1844-5, Stone's River Circuit. In 1845 he was transferred to Alabama; 1846, was appointed to Mount Pleasant Circuit, Tennessee Conference, where he remained two years. In the fall of 1848 he was made presiding elder of the Carthage District, which he served four consecutive years; 1852-6, presiding elder of the Clarksville District; presiding elder of the Columbia District, 1856-60. In 1860-1, Agent of Book and Tract Society; 1861-2, Duck River Circuit; 1862-3, Columbia District, presiding elder. In 1863 and 1864 there were no sessions of the Conference on account of the war. 1865 he was appointed presiding elder of the Columbia District, upon which he remained four consecutive years; 1869-70, presiding elder on the Pulaski District; 1870-4, presiding elder of the Lebanon District; 1874-8, Gallatin District, presiding elder; 1878-9, presiding elder of the Franklin District; 1879-81, presiding elder of the Murfreesboro District; 1881-2, stationed at Greenland; 1882-3, Carroll Street Station. In the fall of 1883 he was made presiding elder of the Shelbyville District, upon which he remained four consecutive years, and where he last served the Church in this capacity. 1887-9. Nashville City Mission. He was presiding elder thirty-three years, on nine districts; nine or ten years on seven or eight circuits, in charge; five years on four stations, in three cities; one year, agent; one year, supernumerary; two or three years without an appointment; two years in City Missionfifty-six years of itinerancy. He was buried at Columbia, Tennessee, where rest the remains of other members of that dear family circle. Rev. A. P. McFerrin, Jr., Rev. W. M. Green, Dr. J. D. Barbee, and Dr. O. P. Fitzgerald participated in the solemn services. We first met Brother Hughes at Tuscumbia, Alabama, on the way to the General Conference at New Orleans, in 1866. He was a member of the noble delegation sent by the Tennessee Conference to that memorable Conference. Of that delegation a majority have left us. Samuel D. Baldwin, Adam S. Riggs, Thomas Maddin, A. L. P. Green, F. S. Petway, William Burr, John B. McFerrin, one after another have passed away. Of that delegation only John W. Hanner, Sr., R. A. Young, J. B. West, and Welborn Mooney remain-eight in the world of spirits, and four still in the flesh and at work for Christ and his Church. We thank God for the heroic and holy dead-the devout, great-souled, golden-mouthed Baldwin; the saintly Riggs; the white-haired. white-souled Maddin; the massive, masterful, yet gentle and fatherly Green; the melodious and magnetic Petway, whose sun set cloudless after the storms; the wise and spotless Burr, whom we buried when the peach-blooms were opening two years ago and more; the great commoner McFerrin, whose tones are still among the hills and valleys of Tennessee and in the hearts of her people. We thank God for these men that have crossed the flood, and we invoke his benedictions upon the four that remain. May their last days be their best, and may their setting sun be without a cloud! The last to leave us was the dear, honored servant of God, whose earthly part we have committed to the rest of the grave. He has met his glorified colleagues again; and what a meeting! If we are not wholly changed by death, there was joy in paradise when the redeemed spirit of the old presiding elder was greeted by his old companions and fellow-laborers. The two worlds close together in such an hour as this. Blessed be God for the Christian fellowship that never shall end; for the Christian friendship that blesses earth and will brighten heaven! If we were required to describe the character of John F. Hughes in a single sentence, we would take it from the Book: "Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile." (John i. 47.) If any man was ever honest by nature, and confirmed by grace, John F. Hughes was that man. He was guileless-a man you could trust without reserve, from whom you might differ in opinion, and with whom you might contend warmly, but for whom your respect would be enhanced. Even a contest elicited his manliness, his courage, his honesty. Manly, courageous, honest-we use the words deliberately as descriptive of his character—he feared The brave, hot Welsh not the face of man. blood that was in him gave him quickness of temper, and made him resentful of injustice and deception, an uncompromising opponent of whatever he thought was wrong, but it made him also the truest of friends to any cause or any man that he espoused or that he took to his heart. He illustrated the saying that the bravest are the tenderest. His clear blue eyes would swim in tears of holy rapture in the communion of saints and in the worship of God, and his strong features relax into a gentleness of expression that was in keeping with the impulses of a soul touched and tuned by a hand divine. This element of his character seemed to be more prominent during the last few months. It now seems to me that he had some presentiment that the end was not far off. His thought and his speech seemed to turn to the unseen and eternal, and he had at times that far-away look that we have seen on the faces of the saints of God as they enter the land of Beulah, which lies just this side the crossing of the river. Our interviews grew more solemn and tender, and we felt a special tenderness and a sort of awe when we saw his reverend head, with his crown of snow-white hair and fatherly face, enter our office-door. That he was ready for the last solemn change is what might He almost literally have been expected. ceased at once to work and live. traveling preacher was in the saddle up to within a few days of his transfer to the new and broader and grander field upon which he has entered. His figure, as he sat straight and sturdy on his cream-colored horse, was familiar in the streets of Nashville, and his prayers and songs were familiar in the haunts of sin and the hovels of poverty. He died in the work. We are inclined to think that superannuation would have come hard to him. He was spared that trial, which has been a bitter one to many a true-hearted, sensitive man. He passed quickly from the labors of the Church militant to the blessedness and glory of the Church triumphant. His last sickness was probably brought on by exposure in the discharge of his pastoral duties. He went from the pulpit to his bed, and in a few days from his bed to heaven. We had two interviews with him during his illness, and on both occasions found him suffering in body, but happy in God. On our last visit, when it was thought he was dying, to the question, "Does the anchor hold?" he replied, "Yes—sweetly," a smile of joy irradiating his face as he spoke. His responses to the prayers at his bedside were deep and full. "I think no more of dying than I would of walking across that floor," he said, when he became aware of the fact that his case was critical. The anchor held in the last storm, and now the old ship has entered the harbor, and our brother has seen the rainbow about the throne, which is the sign that all the storms are over forever. It was the old ship of Zion; she has landed many thousands, and can land as many more. May every one that bore our brother's name, or that was in any way related to him, get aboard, so that his God may be their God, his heaven their home!

WILLIAM Doss.—The Rev. William Doss was born in Sumner County, Tennessee, August 19, 1819. His father died when he was nine years old, leaving his mother with a small estate and a young and dependent family. His mother was a good woman, and taught her children the way of life, but was able to give them but little help in acquiring an education. The early advantages of Brother Doss were, therefore, of an indifferent character; but he had a natural fondness for study, and employed his leisure hours in reading such books as fell into his hands. By diligence he gained knowledge, and was a man of extensive information. Brother Doss was convicted of sin under the preaching of Rev. E. J. Allen, in the summer of 1835. A few weeks after that he was happily converted while at prayer alone in the woods. His conversion was genuine, as was proven by a life of earnest devotion. He was licensed to preach the gospel, November 26, 1842, by the Quarterly Conference of the Goose Creek Circuit, when the Rev. Fountain E. Pitts was presiding elder. At the session of the Tennessee Conference held at Gallatin, October, 1843, he was admitted on trial into the traveling connection. At the Conference held in Huntsville, Ala., October, 1845, he was elected to deacon's orders, but as there was no bishop present he was not ordained until the following session. He was ordained a deacon by Bishop Andrew November 8, 1846, and an elder by Bishop Paine November 7, 1847. From his first Annual Conference he was sent to the Lebanon Circuit as junior preacher under the Rev. John Kelley. He often said he owed much to the wise direction and godly admonition of that saintly woman, Mrs. Lavinia Kelley. Brother Doss was a good man, full of faith and the Holv Ghost. He was a humble servant of God, and by precept and example showed unto us the way of salvation. He was a burning and a shining light, and led the way to heaven and happiness. The people of nearly every town and neighborhood in Middle Tennessee have listened with profit to his ministry, and many in that day will rise up and call him blessed. His name and memory are cherished by thou-His death was a triumph. When the hour of his departure came he was ready for the summons, and left the world without regret or fear. He had fought a good fight, he had finished his course, he had kept the faith, and went with joy to receive the crown of righteousness. He said to Dr. Young, but a short time before his death: "I am no more afraid to die than I would be to walk out of that door." "Depend upon it, the gospel we have been preaching is true." "I am going to heaven; what shall I tell the brethren for you?" In this peaceful, hopeful, joyful way, he took his departure from us. He seemed to have a premonition of his approaching dissolution. At the last session of our Conference, in a letter to us, he said he would meet with us no more on In that letter he bade us an affectionate adieu, and expressed an earnest desire that we meet him in heaven. He has gone from us, but has left us the rich legacy of his useful life. Better than silver and gold is the memory of his virtues. The fragrance of his devout spirit is in the air. The setting sun has left a halo of glory behind it, which will long linger on the horizon of life. We treasure his virtues in our hearts, and hope to meet him when labor meets with reward, and toil and suffering are changed into eternal beatitudes. William Doss was married to Miss A. M. Hughes, October 19, 1847. She was to him a true and faithful wife, sharing with him the fortunes of an itinerant life, and helping him in his ministry. To her he was largely indebted for his success. He died in Nashville, Tennessee, December 20, 1888. A large concourse of friends attended his funeral at Elm Street Church, and devout hands laid him to rest in Mount Olivet.

JOSEPH B. WEST.

REV. JAMES WILEY HILL Was born of Methodist parents in East Tennessee, October 15, 1844; and died in Clarksville August 10, 1889. At the time of his death he was nearly forty-five years of age. His eye was not dim nor his natural force abated when he fell (a soldier of the rank and file) at his post of duty. Near Manchester, Tennessee, beneath the sturdy oaks and by the clear streams lie grew into a robust man, for he was pure-blooded, pure-hearted and pureminded. When a child he professed faith in Christ and joined the Church. Thus building early upon a good foundation, he escaped many of those doubts and fears that torment the minds of even the elect, who make their religious start later in life. When the war came on he was a lad in his teens, and a school-boy, but the love of home and convictions of duty influenced him to enlist in Wheeler's First Tennessee Cavalry, in which service he made the record of a good and valiant soldier. After the war he resumed his studies. His parents having ample means, he was given every advantage of mental culture, and acquired a thorough education. He taught school for awhile after completing his studies, but realizing a higher call he determined to devote himself to the Master's cause, which emphatically to him was a "loved employ." He was licensed to preach the gospel January 23, 1869, and in the autumn of the same year was admitted on trial into the Tennessee Annual Conference. He was ordained deacon October 9, 1870, and elder October 20. His terms of service and fields of labor were distributed as follows: Tullahoma, one year; Hobson's Chapel, four years; Arlington, three years; Murfreesboro. one year; West End, three years; Franklin District, four years, and Clarksville District, four years. During the second year of his pastorate at Hobson Chapel he was married to Miss Alice Maxey, daughter of Esq. P. W. Maxey, of precious memory. His wife, now his sorrowing widow, not only loved but admired her husband, and was in full sympathy with his work; she loved to be with him, loved to talk about him, loved to hear him preach. In her estimation nothing was too good for "Brother Hill," and so we all thought. How simple and unaffected was his preaching! A child could understand. He had but one end in view, and that was to win souls to Christ. Like his Master, he went about doing good. All agree that he was a prince among presiding elders. Having a gift for business, he kept the financial affairs of his district well up, and the preachers who worked under him were his fastest friends. No wonder that his ministry was crowned with a rich harvest! In the pulpit he preached a gospel of love. "God loves you!" was an expression he often used. Out of the pulpit he was as tender as a woman and as gentle as a child, and because of his own loving heart all hearts were full of love for him. When the time came to die he had nothing to do but to obey the call of his Master. During his illness he frequently remarked to his wife and others: "I am resting in the arms of Jesus!" sun had passed the zenith, and was sinking amid the purple and crimson hues of the evening when the spirit of this man of God, brighter than the planets of even, returned to the God who gave it. "Devout men carried him to his burial and made great lamentation over him." WILLIAM M. GREEN.

REV. JESSE J. ELLIS, son of James and Susan Ellis, was born in Sumner County, Tenn., March 11, 1819. He professed religion when about sixteen years of age, and joined the Methodist Church. He served the Church in the capacity of class-leader and exhorter for some time, and October 3, 1841, at "Old Ebenezer," Wilson County, received from the hands of Rev. F. E. Pitts license to preach. In October, 1842, he was received on trial in the Tennessee Conference at Athens, Ala., and was appointed to travel the following Conference year (1842-3) Duck River Circuit; 1843-4, Bedford Circuit; 1844-5, Clarksville Circuit; 1845-7, Red River Circuit; 1847-8, Fountain Head Circuit; 1848-9, Chickasaw Circuit; 1849-50, was supernumerary; 1850-1, was sent again to the Clarksville Circuit; 1851-2, Clarksville Circuit; 1852-4, Wartrace Circuit; 1854-5, Short Mountain Circuit; 1855-6, Cumberland Circuit; 1856-7, Tullahoma Circuit; 1857-8, Spruce Street Station; 1858-9, Gallatin Station; 1859-61, Union Circuit; 1861-5, Shady Grove Circuit; 1865-7, Union Circuit. During this last appointment he was married to Miss Bettie Wright, who was a helpmate indeed, for she filled her station nobly. At the close of this Conference year he located, and remained local for five years. In the fall of 1872 he was re-admitted into the Conference, and was appointed to travel the Cairo Bend Mission. In 1873-4 he traveled Union Circuit, and in the fall of 1874 was granted a supernumerary relation, and continued in that relation until his death, which occurred March 16, 1889, at his own home in Wilson County, Tenn. He died sitting in his chair. We have before us a journal kept by Brother Ellis. It is remarkably neat and well kept, showing the different places at which he had preached, the time, and the text from which he preached. This journal shows that he had preached 4,508 times. We have known Brother Ellis intimately for forty-six years—joined Conference the same year, and we lived within about four miles of each other forty-two years. We have labored together a great deal, and I think he was one of the purest men I have ever known. In his young days he preached with great power, and won many souls to Christ. He was popular and useful in almost all of his appointments. He was a good preacher, his sermons well arranged, and his theology unexceptionable. He loved class-meetings and love-feasts. Truly it may be said of him: "He was a Methodist preacher of the old Brother Ellis has been in feeble health for many years, and for two years before his death was scarcely able to attend to the business of his little farm. He was a kind husband, a good neighbor, a burning. and shining light in the community in which he lived. As the outward man gave way his faith did not fail, and meeting the last foe, he conquered. When he could no longer speak he gave evidence that all was well. He has left an affectionate, sorrowing wife and one sister, together with many dear friends, to mourn their loss. But he is at rest in the He is no stranger there. home of the blest. Father, mother, brother, and friends, who had passed on before, doubtless met him at the gate of the beautiful city, and welcomed him in. The class of sixteen who joined Conference when he did are nearly all gone—but one that I know of who now belongs to the Conference. "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him." Our old preachers are passing away one by one. Thank God they die well! Farewell, dear brother, for awhile. I think we will meet again in the bright beyond.

B. F. FERRELL.

BISHOP H. N. McTyeire.—The Church has in many ways and throughout all her borders given expression to its admiration for the great ability, its appreciation of the value of the service rendered, and the sense of the loss incurred by the death of the late Holland N. McTyeire, who was at the time of his death its senior bishop. But it is peculiarly fitting that the Tennessee Conference should express the sorrow it feels at his death. He lived so long within its bounds, manifested so lively an interest in all its enterprises, lent so willingly the help of his counsel, his prayers, and his purse, and in so many ways identified himself with its work, that it seems almost that he was a member of our own body, and we feel that the universal bereavement is to us a special bereavement. The entire Church had his undivided love and service, and the monuments he has left of his genius and labors are its heritage. But with us he lived. He was our fellow-citizen, our neighbor, our friend. We know how beautiful was his home life, how the little children loved to nestle in his strong arms, or walk with him hand in hand upon the campus of Vanderbilt University, where now his dust is sleeping by that of McKendree and Soule, of whom he was a true successor, not only as an exponent of Methodist doctrine and a wise and faithful administrator of Methodist law, but also in the grandeur of his character and his unreserved devotion to the Lord Jesus Christ. While his name will be enrolled among our illustrious dead, and be held in affectionate remembrance by generations to come, we mourn him most who knew him best.

Whereas the death of Bishop Holland Nimmons McTyeire has occurred since our last Annual Conference, and whereas his home was among us and he has made his grave with us; therefore,

1. Resolved, That while he was not numerically a member of this body, he was one of us in sympathy and association.

2. That we cherish his memory in our hearts, and deplore the loss of a man who was indeed a prince and a great man in Israel, who was a man, in the most emphatic sense, of purpose, conviction and execution; who was not a "time-server" or a flatterer, but walked in the line of duty, fearing no opposition or responsibility.

3. That we heartily indorse Bishop Mc-Tyeire as a conscientious, God-loving, manloving presiding officer and administrator of Church law.

4. That his activity in the department of education, and his interest in the mental culture of the sons and daughters of our preachers will be to us most precious and everlasting memories.

5. That in all the relations of preacher, neighbor, father, and citizen he was of the highest style of man.

6. That we tender the bereaved widow and children of our beloved bishop the love and sympathy of brotherly hearts, which shall know no blight nor slack nor hinderance.

In 1870 the North Alabama Conference was formed, and the territory of the Tennessee Conference reduced.

In 1870 the North Alabama Conference was formed, and the territory of the Tennessee Conference reduced.

The salaries received by the preachers do not include sums that they received from the Domestic Mission Board.

The white population of Middle Tennessee in 1870 was 404,075, and in 1880, 492,368—an increase of 21 per cent. The membership of the Tennessee Conference in 1870 was 33,789, and in 1880 it was 46,428—an increase of 37 per cent.

In 1868 the membership of the Tennessee Conference paid 6½ cents per capita for Missions; in 1878 they paid 13½ cents, while in 1888 they paid 53½ cents per capita.

The figures in reference to salaries are not satisfactory, as the number of preachers include only those in full connection, and do not include local preachers serving as "supplies;" on the other hand, some of those on the "effective" list are connected with educational institutions, and still others are engaged in Connectional work. Of course these items cause our figures to be but approximately accurate, yet they are as nearly correct as we can make them. The loss of records by fire and otherwise has prevented making more detailed reports.
